Business from the floor: None

Old Business:

- William Carr's son called David Durheim after the last meeting, he said his dad had passed and he found the letter and is the new property owner and they are ok with the ditching to occur behind their property as long as the wood is left for them to use. David called the clerk after the phone call and the Clerk passed along the information to the other two supervisors.
- Matt talked to Gus about the brushing/ditching on Elwell Road behind Carr's property. No date set yet but they have it on the list of things to do.
- Ovid was out on the roads the other day and noticed that the culvert by Roger Jensen's on Adolf has not been done, nor the culvert on Low Landing Road. The culvert that needed to be cut by Odey's has not been done. David was going to check the one by Odey's and just got it. Matt was going to talk to Gus about the other two and also some gravel issues.
- No one file for the Hospital Board vacancy at the end of December, nor has anyone contacted us expressing interest. The Clerk will put it on the website to see if anyone looking at our website might be interested.
