Old Business:

- Discussion was held on the Youngberg's, decision was made to ask them to sign something the Clerk will draw up, and ask them to notarize it as well, it will provide them with 30 months requested to get the property back in compliance with the Zoning Ordinance meaning the original building will become a shop instead of residence.
- The clerk heard from Amy Johnson as the State who said: Thank you for submitting your crossings to our solicitation. We have preliminarily reviewed your crossings. We were unable to program the crossings into our current solicitation, however, we would like to do some further evaluation of crossings in your area as a corridor study. Ideally, we would begin the study this summer and have more information to discuss with you regarding potential safety improvements this time next year. The Corridor stud would be led by BNSF; because there are so many crossings in that same area, they felt it would be best to look at all of them along that corridor to come up with the best solutions for all crossings. The clerk will respond to Amy asking that we be included in the corridor study.

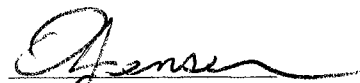

New Business:

- Nancy Fisher, Township Assessor has told us that this will be her last year assessing for the Township. Clerk will ask her for a contact of a possible replacement, also for a map of the sections up for assessing this year and next year.
- City of Askov sent the Fire Contract, it has decreased this year from $37,428.15 to $35,350.03. The next council meeting is February 10 at 6:30 p.m. and Lee will attend that meeting.

Meeting adjourned at 8:02 p.m.
